

105.1707

483

3. / David, Gibson

Confidential for personal use of Messrs Mc Carter, Studer, Pfeiffer, Case, Nielson and Watson.

---

STATEMENT OF FERD A. DAVID.

---

Ferd A. David made an oral statement, the substance of which is as follows:

Shortly before October 26, 1922 Jane Gibson went over the route that she said she took on the night of September 14, 1922, and explained on the ground the incidents that she said she observed, to David and Totten. She rode her mule.
The trip was taken at night. She said that she left her house, mounted on her mule, on September 14, 1922, shortly after the Millstone bus passed on its way to New Brunswick, which she thought was shortly before 9 P. M. She was following a wagon, the driver of which she suspected of having stolen her corn. She followed the wagon down Hamilton Street to De Russey Lane, and through De Russey Lane to Easton Avenue, where the wagon turned to the right. She stopped at that corner. She saw an automobile parked on the north-east side of Easton Avenue a short distance north-west of De Russey Lane, headed northwest. While standing at the corner, she saw three figures crossing the fields in the general direction of the